

~~~ Dear Droners, here's the Newsflash for December 2025 ~~~

... finally the big "end of the year" update, we wish you a pleasant journey into 2026 with lots of enchanting drones and more good things...

so many outstanding releases for this end of year update, so we have several personal recommendations for you:

STROM NOIR - Jouska do-CD (Blue Marble) - timeless droning melancholia, warm and nostalgic...

... like a dream that dreams itself, or a dream that goes around in endless circles...

ALIO DIE - Quot Dies Resurgo CD (Hic Sunt Leones) - "Every Day I Rise"- most evocative medieval ambience - "these strange melodies starting to resonate inside and a world opens with its labyrinthine beauty."

ANDREAS RÖNNQUIST - From Pure Air MC + object (Momentarily Records) - two excellent multi-layer pieces - several slow vibrations or "waves" are interleaving and you can move "with them", like being on a moving ship...

RLW - Fading Pictures CD (Black Rose) - moves into very strong electroacoustic realms with eerie, powerful soundwalls and his hallmark of surprising sounds and changes with great dynamics...

AIDAN BAKER- The Evelyn Tables CD (Cloudchamber) - experience the darker side of AIDAN BAKER, when guitar drones are interjected by mysterious sound effects and acoustic objects, and sublime resonances and feedbacks emerge

OJERUM - Drømme I Langsamt Stof CD (Glacial Movements) - "Dreams in Slow Matter" - another fabulous one-tracker (45 min.) that is based on field recordings of ice on a frozen lake

DEVIL'S BREATH - Abandoned by Humans, Adopted by Wolves CD (Zazen) - extremely eerie catacomb ambience, slow and ritualistic, misanthropic and esoteric, a duo that seems to come from Malta, with second album on ZaZen

ARE MUNDAL - Songs for the Anechoic Chamber LP (Telesterion) - so many different sounds and audio "images" are flooding the space, from more noisy to electronic passages to cathedral drones, it's a dreamlike, abysmal journey...

B*TONG - A Fleeting Moment of Superabundance LP (Force Majeure) - we think one of this best releases so far, super eerie, mysterious, abysmal, not from this world...

....as always much more to find in this update..
